

Care and Maintenance Guidelines

Architectural Elements

PROTECTING YOUR INVESTMENT: The timeless beauty and inherent durability of natural stone makes it favorite material for designers, architects and homeowners. Because of geological composition, all stones are susceptible to varying degrees of staining and surface wear. Additionally, the specific application and use of the stone will affect care recommendations. To preserve the beauty and durability of natural stone in a dimensional stone application with the proper sealers, cleaners and other products, we recommend that you consult with your project manager.

Charles Luck Stone Center recommends and inventories the Aqua Mix® line of stone cleansers, which is available at all Stone Center locations. We advise that you read and follow the manufacturers' directions and consult with your
